Czech Environmental Inspectorate

June – August 2012 – Customs officers with the cooperation of CEI inspectors have recently seized five ivory antique statues imported from the United States. Two consignments were checked at the post office warehouse and the items were ordered via eBay, one statue (on the right picture) was found in a luggage of a private person travelling from the US. Some of the items ordered via eBay were bought as made from ox bone. No documents were attached to either of these consignments. The specimens will be confiscated.
